

family business roundtable of Pittsburgh

Invites you to attend our annual tax symposium "The Impact of the Recent Tax Law Changes"

Leo N. Hitt, Tax Partner at Reed Smith LLP
John J. Febert, The Private Family Office, Inc
Joseph S. Stelmack, Stelmack Dobransky & Eannace, LLC

About the Program

The discussion will provide an update of the federal and PA tax law changes as they relate to your 2005 tax returns and 2006 tax planning. The program will also include a review of some tax planning techniques that family business owners can use to reduce both their personal and business taxes.

Event Details:

When: January 18, 2006
Time: 8:00am—9:30am

Cost per Attendee: $15.00
Checks can be made out to:
The Family Business Roundtable

Location:
Allegheny HYP Club—Pittsburgh
(next door to former Alcoa Bldg. - now the Regional Enterprise Tower)
619 William Penn Place
Pittsburgh, PA 15219
412-281-5858
www.alleghenyhypclub.com

Registration and Continental Breakfast from 8:00 - 8:30am

About the Family Business Roundtable

The Family Business Roundtable is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing support and education to Family Businesses and the advisors who serve them. Membership to the Family Business Roundtable is only $125 per year and includes admission to many Family Business Roundtable programs.

For more information on the Family Business Roundtable, or to find out more on becoming a member, please visit us online at www.fbrpgh.org

RSVP: by January 16, 2006 to Leigh Baxter at: 888-829-2162 ext. 3 or by email at: lbaxter@thebank.com

Presenters

Leo N. Hitt — Leo is a partner in the Pittsburgh office of Reed Smith LLP and the head of its firm-wide Tax, Benefits and Wealth Planning Group. He is an adjunct professor of law at the University of Pittsburgh and Duquesne University and an adjunct professor in the Masters of Taxation program at Duquesne University.

John J. Febert — John is a relationship and tax manager for The Private Family Office, Inc., a multi-family office that offers integrated financial planning to its clients in the areas of asset management, estate planning, income tax planning and compliance, accounting, bookkeeping and bill paying, risk management, philanthropy and family governance. He has extensive experience in providing tax advice to partnerships, S corporations, nonprofits, trusts and individuals.

Joseph S. Stelmack — Joe is a partner in the Pittsburgh accounting firm of Stelmack Dobransky & Eannace LLC. He has a long history of providing excellent accounting and tax advice to a diversified clientele. He currently serves as the Treasurer of the Family Business Roundtable.

family business roundtable
of Pittsburgh

Reservation Form

Name

Organization

Address

City

State

Zip

Phone

Fax

Email

Paying by Check (make checks payable to The Family Business Roundtable) Cash

Please RSVP by: Jan 16th to Leigh Baxter

By Mail:
The Family Business Roundtable
Attn: Leigh Baxter
614 Fifth Avenue
Coraopolis, PA 15108

Or by the following:
Phone: 888-829-2162 x 3
Fax: Attention: Leigh Baxter :724-772-2873
Email: lbaxter@thebank.com

The Family Business Roundtable is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing support and education to Family Businesses and the advisors who serve them. Membership to the Family Business Roundtable is only $125 per year and includes admission to many Family Business Roundtable programs.

For more information on the Family Business Roundtable, or to find out more on becoming a member, please visit us online at www.fbrpgh.org.